

Happy Families, Happy Futures

Working together for stronger relationships

Happy Families, Happy Futures offers free support to parents to improve their communication skills and to build on their strengths as parents. Subscribe to our quarterly newsletter to hear about training opportunities, updates to the programme and case studies of how Happy Families, Happy Futures is helping local families.

Subscribe

Devon – Reducing Parental Conflict Roadshows

An exciting opportunity has arisen to welcome strategic leads, managers and frontline practitioners to join us at our Reducing Parental Conflict roadshows in March 2020. We encourage you to book your place as soon as possible.

Book a place

Case study – Triple P Family Transitions programme

Find out how our programme has helped a separated family to communicate more effectively and promote consistency between their family homes.

Read the story

Sign up for our newsletter to hear more about training opportunities, updates and how we're helping parents to improve their communication skills and parent together.

Subscribe